

Code of Conduct for Contestants and Titleholders

Our goal at the Mr. and Miss Capital Pride Pageant is to help foster a better understanding of our community, with this in mind the pageant executive has put together this Code of Conduct in order to assist our Contestants and Titleholders with this task.

1. That I will never knowingly demean the Capital Pride pageant system, Pride Festival, title or it's affiliates.
2. That I will never cause substantial problems for the Capital Pride Board of Directors or for those for whom they perform.
3. That while representing either the Mr. and Miss Capital Pride Title or it's affiliates; I will never become "too" intoxicated. (Capital Pride Board of Directors and the Capital Pride Pageant Coordinator reserves the right to declare what is considered excessive)
4. That I will never participate in any type of argument, except as a mediator while representing the title of Mr. and Miss Capital Pride.
5. That I will try to solve any problems with the Mr. and Miss Capital Pride Promoters and/or co-performers in a peaceful manner and in good faith.
6. That I will never use my position to lecture an audience, and will provide only quality entertainment.
7. That I will not commit acts of a violent nature, or allow others to.
8. That I will not use illegal drugs.
9. That I will not commit in the act of stealing.
10. That I will not participate in malicious gossip.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Pageant Representative: _____